Spirit Led Counselling Services NSW Australia

Welcome to Spirit Led Counselling Services NSW Australia. My name is Sharon Mackenzie, and as a sole trader (ABN 64 980 520 433), I am passionate about supporting everyone in the community through Counselling, Chaplaincy Services, Aromatherapy, Death Doula Services, Art SOZO, and Narrative Practice.

I believe wholeheartedly that every person deserves respect, understanding, and access to supportive services, no matter their circumstances or abilities. My goal is to create an environment that feels safe, welcoming, and accessible for all who reach out. Whether you are seeking help, guidance, or simply a listening ear, I am here to walk beside you.

If you have particular accessibility needs—such as help with physical access, alternative formats of materials, assistive technologies, or any communication preferences—please let me know. I am always willing to listen and work together to find solutions that suit you best. Your comfort and participation matter deeply to me, and I will do everything possible to make your experience positive and enriching.

Feedback is always welcome and encouraged. If you have suggestions, encounter any difficulties, or see areas where I can improve, please reach out. Together, we can continue to make Spirit Led Counselling Services a place where everyone feels included and valued.

Thank you for considering my services and for being a part of this supportive community. I look forward to connecting with you and am committed to making your journey with Spirit Led Counselling Services as accessible and uplifting as possible.
